

STEINAR RAKNES

Chameleon

*I need someone to hold me
Don't need no one to hold me down
I'm free
Like an eagle
Though I'm hiding
Every day*

*I need someone to lift me
Don't need no one to drop me down
I'm covering up
In pieces
I'm invisible
Every day*

*It's getting darker every night
and my shadow's disappearing somehow
:/:I'm a chameleon
In the center of the bull's eye:/:*

*I need someone to see me
Don't need no one to take my pic
I'm real
I am here
But I struggle
Every day*

*It's getting darker every night
and my shadow's disappearing somehow
:/:I'm a chameleon
In the center of the bull's eye:/:*
