Crush Me

*There's a storm outside
It's rattling my window
Shaking the foundation of this house
The ceiling of this room is made of Giant iron bricks
Hanging over me and I'm just Waiting for them to*

*Crush me
Fall over me
Crush me
Cover me up
Crush me
Break me down
Crush me
Smash me up*

*I have given up
To put up a fight
My defense is down, I'm too tired now to care
I hear you knocking
On my door
I see you in the shadows, I am waiting for you to*

Crush me...

*If you would give me one more chance
If you could offer one more dance
I would be good, I would be nice
So please consider to wait a little while,
Before you*

Crush me...

*Fall over
Cover me up
Fall over me
Break me down
Fall over
Fall over me
Cover me up
Break me down
Yeah wait a little while before you*
