Dancer With A Broken Leg

*I'm waiting for the sun to rise
I haven't slept a wink tonight
There is much here I despise
Though everything seems just alright
I want more than I can get
I know, and much do I forget
But you're with me all the time
You're always on my mind*

*«But a dancer with a broken leg, babe
Is like a bassist without a bass
And a car, mam, without a driver
Is like a card game without an ass
And a bass line without punch, babe
Is like punch without booze
And a heartache without a tear, girl
Is like a gambler that never can loose
And a love song without a melody
Is like me babe, without you»*

*This can't go on, though I'm feeling strong
I am flesh and blood and bones
I can fly like the wind through a stormy night
'til I am hearing the trombones
One for the money, arrow and bow
There's one thing that I know
You're with me all the time
You're always on my mind*

«Buz a dancer with a broken leg, mam...
